JACKSON COUNTY CENTRAL SCHOOLS

March 15, 2020

In response to the Governor's announcement made earlier today regarding COVID-19 and school closures, please review carefully the following:

The Jackson County Central and Immanuel Lutheran School of Lakefield and buses will run 2 hours late tomorrow, Monday, March 16. There will not be 3 year old morning preschool and breakfast will not be served. There will be 4 year old preschool and will be 3 year old afternoon preschool. Day care will open on time.

There will not be school on Tuesday, March 17 and thereafter through Friday, March 27. These will be non-learning days.

JCC buildings will be open to the public for students to pick up any necessary learning supplies and personal items on Tuesday, March 17 and closed thereafter through Friday, March 27. All previously scheduled events and activities to be held between now and Friday, March 27 have been postponed indefinitely.

Day care will open on time on Tuesday, March 17 and continue on time daily for currently enrolled students. As per the Governor's announcement, day care will be extended on Wednesday, March 18 to include the availability of care for school age children through age 12 of families of emergency workers. For additional information, please call 507-847-5868.

Individuals connected to Immanuel Lutheran- please note that communication from Immanuel Lutheran Administration is forthcoming.

Please practice safety and stay tuned for further announcements as they become available.
